In this our 15th anniversary year, the National Alliance Against Racist & Political Repression has targeted two areas of struggle for urgent action:

- Outlawing Racist and Anti-Semitic Violence

Continuing to build the movement to pass the Paterson bills in New York, organizing similar struggles around the country, and implementing a national strategy to demand federal action.

- Freeing Political Prisoners

Stepping up the fight to free Johnny Imani Harris in Alabama; building a new struggle to free the victims of the FBI's notorious COINTELPRO attacks, many of whom have been in prison for almost 20 years; freeing new victims of government repression such as the Puerto Rico/Hartford 16.

Proceeds from the Human Rights Awards/15th Anniversary Luncheon will go to further this work.
