Dear Rev. Merryman,

The Staten Island Council for Peace and Justice wishes to express its appreciation for the use of your church hall for its annual Hechtman-Rosen Award ceremony.

The ambiance of the church added greatly to the tone and the feel of the event and helped to make the twentieth anniversary of the SICP & J a really special occasion. For the many people who attended the luncheon, a community church such as First Presbyterian was the best place to hold an event honoring an individual who had worked for so many years for the cause of peace and justice on Staten Island.

Enclosed you will find a contribution of fifty dollars as a token of our appreciation. Also enclosed are some articles covering the event from the local press.

We look forward to the possibility of using the hall for next year's luncheon and to working together on other projects to improve Staten Island and the causes of peace and justice throughout the world.

Once again, thank you.

Yours Truly,

Angelo D'Angelo Ruth Schwartz
