HANDS OFF LENIN

The almost daily hysterical campaign to return Russia (Soviet Union) back to pre-1917 is in full swing. The present temporary class of capitalists and their foreign masters want to stop the largest country on this globe so that it cannot expel the temporary usurpers of power from their Western supported seats of power. It is self evident even to these exploiters that their days are numbered, and the day shall come when they have to pay dearly for their crimes.

The bandits around Yeltsin are now desperately trying to eliminate from the eyes of the Soviet people the most sacred and historical symbol and take the body of V.I. Lenin and rebury it in a "Christian burial" and thus eliminate the Lenin Mausoleum itself!

Traitors like Sobchak, Mayor of Moscow, Novodvorskaya, Zakharov, Alla Gerber, Rastopovich, and also the growing fascist movement demonstrate daily under the slogan of "Kill all Jews and Communists"! The primitive ideology of fascism is becoming the official policy and threatening the country with civil war.

Reading Soviet press, we find out that there was a Committee set up of workers, deputies, lawyers, writers, artists, scientists, farmers which is organizing a Soviet Committee in Defense of the Honour and Scientific Knowledge of V.I. Lenin, the Father of Soviet Union.

It is also heartening to hear that the first task of this Committee is to draw up a Black List of all the enemies of the people, taking them to court or to the World Court in Geneva for vandalism and the desecration of the Memorial Complex on Red Square. Appeal was made to UNESCO under which jurisdiction the Lenin Mausoleum is under a "one of the architectural ensembles that must be preserved for future generations".

This Committee calls upon all progressive organizations, movements and publications to send protests to the present rulers of Russia, protests to UNESCO. A world-wide solidarity campaign should be launched in order to defend the Lenin Mausoleum. Send protests to Russian diplomatic missions in all countries, trade organizations and also Russian Missions in those countries!

Now, it is no longer necessary to criticize J.V. Stalin - the campaign is on to rebury V.I. Lenin and obliterate from the eyes of Soviets and of the world working class the sacred symbol of revolution which has shone a light upon the working class of the world.

Since this year (1997) is the 80th Anniversary of the Great October Revolution, the event that showed the road to the oppressed people of the world for their future, these bandits, these "democrats" are hell-bent to get rid of the body of Lenin, even stooping to use falsified "documents", supposedly stating that Lenin wanted his body to be buried "besides his Mother"!

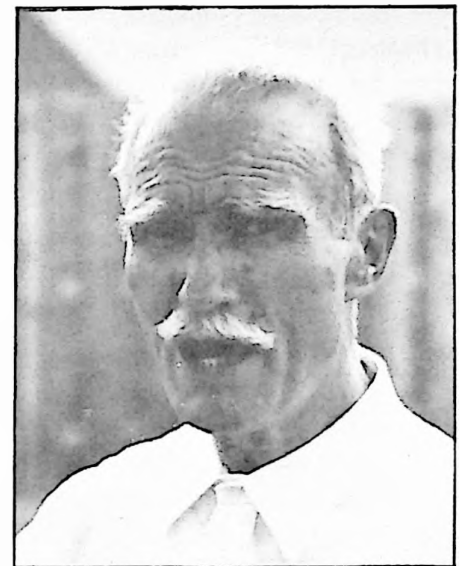

We are asking all of our readers to send protests to Russian Embassies, consulates, Trade Missions and also to UNESCO in New York, USA, protesting this vandalism by the traitors whose time is coming when they shall pay the supreme penalty for their dastardly crimes!

HIS HEART BEATS NO MORE!

It is with deep sorrow that the Editorial Board of Northstar Compass has learned that Michael Logoyda had passed away on June 23, 1997 at the age of 89 after fighting an illness which at last he succumbed to.

Michael Logoyda was a loyal, dedicated reader of NSC since its first issue 5 years ago. His constant financial help from his meagre pension was always coming. His name appears very, very often on the Honour Board at the Friendship House in Toronto, Canada.

Born in Perth Amboy, USA, Michael spoke and read about 6-7 languages. He was an active member of: Lemko Association USA; Ukrainian American League; Society of Carpatho-Russian Canadians; progressive organizations in USA and very active in the American Slavic Committee; Aid To Russia Fund; fought against McCarthyism in USA; visited the USSR and other socialist countries; while taking an active part in all causes dedicated to the working class.

He was the Editor of newspaper "Karpatska Rus" for many years, struggling against tendencies that caused great harm to the progressive movement.

His involvement in the Carpatho-Russian Society in Canada, in which building the Canadian Friends of Soviet People and Northstar Compass is situated, was very much appreciated by both organizations.

Michael had a vision of the world to be socialist in orientation and struggles against injustices by the ruling class. He was a man of action, well versed in political economy, culture and the history of the working class and the classics of Marx, Engels, Lenin and Stalin.

Michael Logoyda left a bereaved wife Anna, daughter Kathryn, brother Stephen and sister Doretta, plus three grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Our deepest sympathy to his family.

Michael Logoyda always strived for progress, whether in the Ukrainian American League, Lemko Association or their newspapers. He was very perturbed by the present policy of these two organizations' newspapers, which now have turned around from being the leading progressive press, to mimicking or completely oblivious as to the terrible situation existing now in the former socialist countries.

He was very critical of the newspaper "Karpatsa Rus" and "Ukrainian News" which have abandoned the progressive role of its founding Editors and dedicated readership. He agonized at these "fence sitting leaders" - waiting as to what might happen, instead of fighting in their newspapers for the truth and the danger of coming fascism which is being planned and carried out in the former homelands of these two organizations!

We promise Michael Logoyda that his dream and struggle is not in vain! □

WORKERS UKRAINE - CANADA SOCIETY IS FORMED!

After the temporary demise of the USSR and consequently the demise also of the Union of Soviet Friendship Societies headed by Valentina Tereshkova, the first Soviet Cosmonaut, our Canada-USSR Association and now the Canadian Friends of Soviet People, were left without a partner to proceed on an organized path of friendship.

At the urging of the Canadian Council of Canadian Friends of Soviet People and the Editorial Board of Northstar Compass, Professor Vladimir Herasymchuk of Lutsk, Ukraine and his comrades were finally able to launch the new Friendship Society.

We're just waiting from Russia and Byelorussia to hear that they too have set up a Friendship Society with Canada, thus continuing the friendship work that was started by our predecessor in 1918, the "Hands Off Russia Committee"!

We would like to congratulate Professor Herasymchuk (constant contributor to NSC and member of NSC Editorial Committee) for putting into motion this all-important society.

Below, we publish their OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION of the formation of the "Workers' Ukraine - Canada Society".

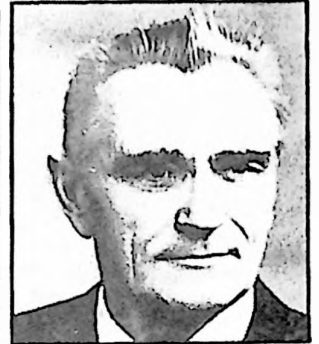

To: Canadian Friends of Soviet People, and to Editorial Committee of Northstar Compass

Dear Comrades!

Dear Canadian friends!

We, participants of founding meeting of the "Workers' Ukraine - Canada Society", are sending you sincere greetings and wishes for success in your struggles for the rights of man, for peace, democracy and socialism. Our Society is the result of the people's initiative, aimed at strengthening contacts between working class of Ukraine and Canada. Its aim: further strengthening our contacts in the struggle for rights of people in the free development of individuals, for the right to work, rest, social services, free health services and schooling.

PROFESSOR

We believe that our friendship and cooperation will fulfill important problems in today's situation. We thank you for your dedicated work, for your solidarity with Soviet people, struggling for the resurrection of our Socialist Motherland.

Together, we shall be victorious!
Victory will be ours!

HAVE YOU RENEWED YOUR SUB?

STATEMENT BY THE VI CONVENTION OF RUSSIAN COMMUNIST WORKERS PARTY

HANDS OFF LENIN!

The most reprehensible persons in the eyes of our people – Sobchak, Starovotova, Novodvorskaya, Borovoy – time from time, basing themselves on “humanism and Christian traditions”, are calling for the reburial of the body of V.I. Lenin.

They cannot rest peacefully because of the fact that the never-ending stream of Soviet people flows to Lenin Mausoleum, people who want to pay their respect and to remember forever in their memories the founder of the USSR. To this infamous company, of course, Yeltsin joined enthusiastically, who just in 1989 in reply to a question, as to who to him is an ideal personality and politic, without a moment of hesitation, stated: “Lenin!” Traitors always try to hide their crimes under a cloak of holy symbols.

Today, it is absolutely clear to everyone that Yeltsin is not capable of fulfilling his pre-election promises. The situation in the country is chaotic and getting worse day by day – the future perspective is scary. The provocative storm around the Mausoleum is meant to take people’s minds off their economic problems, from reality in daily struggles, and it is meant to perpetrate civil war, therefore a chance to institute harsh dictatorship, a dictatorship of a fascist character.

This is the policy, this is the aim of the present regime!

Russian Communist Workers Party demands an end to this calumny around Lenin Mausoleum and V.I. Lenin! We warn the present regime – “You sow the wind, you’ll reap a whirlwind!”

HANDS OFF LENIN!

Former “Communist-Ideologue-Atheist” Yeltsin stated: “We shall give V.I. Lenin a Christian burial!” □

From Newspaper: “VOICE OF STALINGRAD”

WHO AND FOR WHAT ARE THEY STORMING THE MAMAYEV HILL?

Our city is certainly full of architectural scandals. Just very recently, there was a movement by the new bourgeoisie to erect a monument to Hitlerites at the Mamayev Hill, the sacred monument to thousands of Soviet soldiers who died against fascism. At that time, we thought that this is the last of these attempts, that nothing more blasphemous could be thought up. But, no, we were wrong!

The church and its priesthood wanted to go one better. They decided that it is necessary to build a cathedral right at the foot of the monument on top of the Mamayev Hill. Of course, these clergy are of commercial mind – hundreds of thousands of people come yearly to pay respects to the great heroes who gave their lives for the liberation of Stalingrad and of the Soviet Union. Why not take advantage of this multitude? They want to “save” thousands of communists and komsomols whose bodies are lying in these graves or the fact that they want to save these departed “souls” for Christianity, Orthodoxy? But, in Stalingrad, it’s not only the Slavs that died defending the Motherland – if you read the honour roll, you will find heroes that died from all of the former Soviet Republics.

What now? Must we also permit to build on Mamayev Hill a Mosque plus other religious buildings, or should we just build an Orthodox Cathedral? Or maybe these “Batiushkas (clergy)” have already divided the departed souls into “ours” and “others”? If this construction is allowed to go on, it will go up very fast – the clergy have no qualms that the finances will be forthcoming from the top.

The most outrageous and disheartening is the fact that among the sponsors of this “enterprise” amongst the clergy, nationalists, monarchists are so-called leaders calling themselves “communist” such as Seleznev, Zyuganov and other “communists in Christ”. This is tragic, but not unexpected.

We are always for freedom of religious worship, as was always the case in former USSR. Each one to their beliefs, but the State must be separated from the Church. But we are for truly true religious feelings, without a hidden agenda.

NEWS FROM FORMER SOVIET UNION

From Newspaper:
"TRUDOVAYA ROSSIA"
Organ of
Russian Communist Workers Party

HOW MANY PATRIOTS IN THE DUMA?

On May 16, 1997, the Yeltsin regime was able to pass legislation to the effect that natural resources of Russia now can be sold, leased, exploited and exported to foreign countries with minimal pay back to the present regime, and furthermore, it is being done so that the foreign owners-exploiters are not legally bound to carry out the "agreements" as was the case when Alaska was "leased" to the United States of America with a provision of it being returned after 100 years. As we all know, this was never adhered to by U.S. imperialism!

The same scenario is bound to be repeated now with the legislature that was adopted by the present Russian Duma (parliament).

From the largest faction in the Duma held by CPRF (Communist Party of Russian Federation) headed by Gennady Zyuganov ... only 95 members "communists" voted against this law, out of close to 200 CPRF deputies!

In our estimation, it is the complete ideological blindness of these CPRF deputies, the unprincipled leadership of CPRF Duma deputies. They completely bowed to the privatization of the economy. They are selling the Motherland to foreign exploiters and this is unforgivable!

OUR COMMENT:

Some of our readers who belong to the progressive movement write us that we should NOT criticize the CPRF leadership for the sake of "unity" ... what is your opinion on this sell-out? You certainly must know that owning raw resources in another country, exploiting its labour force and taking out of the country the resources is certainly not meant to bolster "Russia" as a power, or economic rival to the multinational interests!

How would people that think like this explain their reasoning? How would you explain this to Soviet people? □

5th CONGRESS OF ALL-RUSSIA OFFICERS' MEETING

"Criminal propaganda, bribery and intimidation are preventing for now the people from taking decisive actions. Ideology of reform is cast away by the people. This regime came to a dead end. Our task - to accelerate its downfall."

Decision of the Union of Officers at the 5th Congress.

May 24, 1997 saw the gathering of delegates to the 5th Congress of Union of Officers. There were 296 delegates representing 40 regions of Russia, plus delegates from other former Soviet Republics.

The main report was given by General V.A. Achalov, Chairman of the All Russia Officers Meeting in which he outlined the problems, scathingly attacked the present regime, went into details about the terrible plight of the armed forces and the inroads being made by NATO and other special forces into the policies and plans of the Russian Armed Forces.

He told about different tendencies in the officers' corps, all promoted and instigated from the Kremlin, with advisors of NATO and their special services playing the decisive role. He also outlined tasks that must be undertaken by the officers in order to put all of their energy together with communist movements in order to resurrect the Soviet Union. He also called upon different officers' associations to join together in order to be a mighty force to save the Motherland.

The Congress adopted resolutions regarding: the union between Russia and Byelorussia; protest against the signing of Protocol between Russia and NATO. The Congress adopted an APPEAL to all the Officers of Russia in all of the Armed Forces, Army, Navy and Air Force.

Below, we publish the composition of the Statement sent to Boris Yeltsin by the 296 delegates and guests.

"Mr. President!

Regarding your statement on May 22 in which you blame all Generals, Admirals and Officers for corruption and laziness, we are telling you and telling all the people of Russia the following:

We, the officers, categorically refute your statement when you place all of us into the same mould with those who are responsible for the terrible condition of the army as it is now. In this regard, it is YOU who are to blame as the Commander In Chief, plus your advisors, and not all the Generals, who despite of the plight of the Motherland and its people.

In our tasks as officers, we do not dwell on robbery and speculation. You and your servants (amongst them, your favourite officers) have brought a mighty country to its knees, have demoralized and practically liquidated a mighty Soviet Army and left the country defenseless. You and your underlings have permitted yourself such luxury and robbery of the people that the Russian Tsars could have only dreamt about.

It is according to your demands that honest, courageous and dedicated Generals and Officers were taken off their posts and you replaced them with careerists of such calibre as Shaposhnikov, Grachev, Kobtsa, Volkogonov and others, these born-again 'democrats-capitalists'. They followed your orders and practically liquidated the armed forces of former USSR and now, of Russia.

We do not defend these Generals, these lackeys who are stepping on the backs of soldiers, who are forced to build your and these lackeys of yours rich summer homes ... while you keep quiet about this outrageous robbery and slave labour of the common soldiers.

Your advisors, having robbed the country of untold wealth, depositing their ill-gotten money in foreign banks, while building their villas in Turkey, Spain, Cyprus, France and Bahama Islands on the shores of USA and Mexico.

We know full well as to who inside our country and abroad is for actions such as these, the main thrust which is to get rid of honest, dedicated patriots from the commanding positions of the Armed Forces of Russia. These are the people who twice paid for all of your election expenses, who support your reforms, who finance your 'democratic orgy' in the country.

Therefore, you have no moral right to denounce and smear honest

Generals and Officers. And we must remind you that we are not bound to listen to your commands, because we do have recourse to other methods. You cannot scare us, you, as is your custom, can only sell us and the Motherland." □

From Newspaper: "VOICE OF A COMMUNIST" Moscow

Many articles in this newspaper deal with the proposal for a referendum by Yeltsin in order to rebury V.I. Lenin and demolish the Lenin Mausoleum and also, an attempt to rebury all the remains (ashes) of great heroes in the Kremlin Wall, such as Gagarin, Zhukov, Rokossovsky, Konev, Vatutin, Gorky, Tchkalov and other heroes of Soviet Union.

There is an organized campaign and a fund established which takes care of the Mausoleum. The present State does not provide any finances, even though this is the propaganda that is being told to the people. This Fund is headed by Alexei Abramov, who appeals to all Soviet people to close their ranks in order to prevent this sacrilegious act from being perpetrated by the present regime.

They are appealing to all people of the world to send protests to the Kremlin and to the Russian Embassies-Consulates in their countries.

We are urging all of our readers to do this as quickly as possible, in order to prevent this act from taking place. A referendum on this question is being planned for late fall of this year. Knowing the cheating and falsification that transpired in the last two elections, we can just imagine what the results will be! □

QUOTES FROM WHAT YELTSIN SAID -

• I lost, as a communist my face as a leader. I am to blame in front of Moscow party organization for my actions." (November 1987)

• I am asking for political rehabilitation while I'm alive." (June 1988)

• Regarding as to who was the greatest political leader of all time, the ideal leader ... only V.I. Lenin is the man that was that great leader." (November 1988)

WHERE TO BURY YELTSIN?

Union of Soviet Officers has come up with a suggestion, they stated: "If it comes to pass that Yeltsin will rebury Lenin from the Mausoleum, he must realize that this former 'high ranking communist functionary', that his ashes and the ashes of his flunkies and helpers shall never find any rest on Russian soil". The writer Vladimir Bushin suggested that Yeltsin be buried in the yard of the American Embassy.

CHERNOMYRDIN

Not too long ago, Premier Chernomyrdin, while in the USA, stated the following: "Two Germans thought up ghosts of communism and in silence and by stealth, showed it to the East. I have in mind Marx and Engels."

These words of the Russian Premier were accepted with laughter by the Chicago businessmen who gathered to hear this "millionaire". This was sent over the wires by ORT to our country, without comment of this laughter of not so stupid Chicago businessmen.

First of all, Chernomyrdin (former Central Committee apparatchik) fully knows that Engels and Marx worked in England most of their lives and that the ideas of Marx and Engels were born in the middle of 19th century when the accumulation of capital started. And to be exact, Marx and Engels were not the first who analyzed society and presented their works of a communist society ... there were St-Simon, Furze, Ouena, Prudon, Duering and others.

Regarding his statement of "By stealth they showed it to the East" – this is the highest form of stupidity. If Chernomyrdin had any inkling of history, he would have known that the spread of Marxism in Russia started only after the death of Marx.

Only the most gullible, unread people could swallow such trash!

COMMENT:

Chernomyrdin, who is now under investigation and attack, as Northstar Compass wrote many issues ago, due to his accumulated millions that he garnered from the energy resources, knows his history, having gone through party schools of CPSU, but there seems to be an old saying that "there's nobody more righteous than a prostitute after confession" ... which is apropos here! □

ALL UNION YOUNG GUARDS OF BOLSHEVIKS

Below, we publish the "Fighting Leaflet" that is distributed to young people in the City of Tula by these young, dedicated Bolsheviks!

"In front of you is the first number of the fighting leaflet. It is aimed at those who are not satisfied with the present politics of dismemberment and destruction of our Great Motherland – Union of Soviet Socialist Republics; those who love their homeland; and those who fear for its future; those that cannot just remain passive while our people suffer; the death of thousands of our people that are innocent victims; those that want to save our social gains that were fought for (right to work, free education and medical services, services for our elderly, etc.) which was gained by the blood, sweat and tears of our fathers and grandfathers; in whom the lies and slander against our Motherland, and its glorious history have not demolished your belief to regain the truthfulness in our society; to whom work and dedication is dear and not speculation and to those in whose heart the flame has not died of love and respect for people of the working class; to you who cannot just sit still with folded hands.

If you are against the break-up of the economy, rising prices, the mushrooming of the mafia and their bought servants, who are enriching themselves while robbing the masses while selling their souls to the Western bourgeoisie.

If you are for a mighty state – Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, for order in our land, for real peoples' power, the rebirth of the economic might of our country, truthfulness and equality.

If you are ready to fight and struggle, not stinting your energy for truth – stand and join our ranks – join the All Union Young Guard of Bolsheviks!

AUYBG is a voluntary society – political organization of Communist youth, formed in the spring of 1992 by young Bolsheviks. It now exists on all of the territories of the Soviet Union. The organization today is active in the Baltics, Central Asia, Byelorussia, Russia, Ukraine, Moldavia and the Caucasus.

All Union Young Guards of Bolsheviks is composed of young boys and girls, who do not accept Americanization, who cast away foreign customs which are foreign to our culture and outlook, and is united against the forced capitalization of our country.

AUYGB is the only youth organization which is completely dedicated to the ideas and ideals of Lenin-Stalin and struggles for the victory of socialism"

(The leaflet then gives addresses and times when young people can meet.) □

A NEW YOUTH NEWSPAPER

We received a number of "Sovietskaya Molodezh – Soviet Youth" newspaper which is published by the regional Bolshevik Youth in Bryansk, Russia.

We congratulate the young Bolsheviks for their publishing of a much needed newspaper serving the needs of young people who are becoming more and more victims of the present bourgeois regime. Below, we publish a condensed version by this newspaper's editor, V. Panikhin, who is a member of the All Union Youth Guard of Bolsheviks, which our readers will, we hope, find interesting.

HUCKSTERS

During the years of "perestroika" and "reforms", the youth were promised so many variants of future manna from heaven that the youth now cannot allow themselves to believe any of these promises or "solutions". That is why we cannot agree or believe in a new version that is being peddled to Soviet youth by representatives of the Central Committee of the Russian Communist Union of Youth (Maliarov) about the formation of "Trading Company" serving CC RCUY under the slogan of "Social Development".

In the newspaper "Komsomolskaya Iskra" of the Vladimir region, there was an article entitled "Politics – is for the youth" where it is suggested that young people should be businessmen, but these "Komsomol" leaders try to hide that these business ventures – allowed and promoted by the present regime – are not for exploitation at all!? In this article, it says: "Our strength is not in noisy demonstrations or pickets against the regime, or in meetings, but in a realistic financial help to the youth, by getting into trading business with the government"!

Where will these "Komsomol" leaders lead the youth in the future? These "joint ventures", these "government-sponsored and allowed ventures" by these so-called "Komsomol" leaders, are nothing but an attempt to derail the growing unrest of the young generation, thus get them away from the struggles and channel them into a Utopian idea that they can beat the system by being part of the system!

Today, the main task of the young Bolsheviks is to struggle against the present renegades, both old and young. On the outcome of this struggle will depend our future. These "Komsomols" are backed by the banks, capitalist class, being given as an "incentive" for the "realization of the proposed projects".

On our side is the only truth. Each young Bolshevik should realize that communists do not give up: they either win, or they die in this struggle for the truth. This means that we must fight, not stinting either strength or our energies.

NOT A STEP BACKWARDS! ☐

From Newspaper: "MY I VREMYA" (We and Time) Communist Party of Byelorussia

Below, we publish a photo of a demonstration that was held under the initiative of organization "Soviet Patriots" when demonstrating in front of the Byelorussian Embassy in Kiev. Citizens of Kiev gathered there, supporting the movement for unity between Russia and Byelorussia and demanding the resurrection of the Soviet Union.

On the photograph, you can see Galina Savchenko on behalf of the movement "For USSR" – holding a placard which states: "We shall oust the regime of traitors and resurrect our Motherland, the USSR!" ☐

STATEMENT OF THE PEOPLES' ANTI-FASCIST FRONT OF USSR!

WE LIVE IN THE SOVIET UNION! USSR OR DEATH! TO ALL PEOPLES OF THE SOVIET UNION!

Bourgeois counter-revolution which lives in our country since 1991, is aiming to practically eliminate all people living in the USSR.

In order to understand why this liquidation is taking place, we have to explain – what is the USSR?

Motherland of Soviet people – Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, is the largest multi-peoples' country in the world.

Peoples of the USSR for scores of years studied, worked, were brought up, fought and died for the Soviet Union. It was the first country in the world to liberate itself from being under capitalism and nationalism. We became Soviets and internationalists – Soviet People!

For 70 years, the peoples of the USSR have united in one internationalist Soviet people. But during all of these 70 years, the capitalists, imperialists, foreign and internal enemies of Soviet people tried to dismantle the USSR and to put at logger-heads the nationalities of the USSR against each other. Generation upon generation, Soviet people defended themselves against the foreign and internal enemies.

In 1991, the process of instigating nationalities against each other began, and in all of the 15 Republics of USSR, the enemies from within and without managed to usurp power and let loose full blast the nationalism scourge, private enterprise and capitalist morals.

People are now beginning to realize that ... NATIONALISM IS THE METHOD OF LIQUIDATION OF ALL PEOPLES OF USSR.

Now we see the growth of nationalism, fascism all fanned by well-monied forces, supported by outside and inside reactionary elements.

Yeltsin and his "followers" have already eliminated through their economic, nationalist and internal conflicts many millions of people. People like Lukashenko of Byelorussia, Yeltsin and Luzhkov of Russia and Pinochet-lover General Lebed are promoting nationalistic hysteria, that they would with Ukrainian Banderites, Georgian Zviadists and other national-fascist groupings completely wipe out the remnants of anything Soviet.

These bandits are aiming to finish the job started by Hitler and fascism. Nationalists in any nation are the main killers of their own people.

PEOPLE! THE ONLY WAY TO SAVE ALL PEOPLES OF THE USSR IS THROUGH SOVIET INTERNATIONALISM. SOVIET UNION - THIS IS LIFE! FASCISM - THIS IS DEATH!

We call upon all Soviet people to unite themselves around the Anti-fascist Front of USSR, in order to save ourselves.

PEOPLES OF USSR, UNITE! □

APPEAL OF THE KIEV COMMITTEE ALL-UNION YOUNG GUARD OF BOLSHEVIKS

To Young Peoples' Marxist-Leninist Parties and Movements of the World

Dear Friends!

After 1956, the Marxist-Leninist movements of the world were divided and many splits occurred. At first, this was the result of revisionism line of Khrushchev, then for different reasons such as Czechoslovakia 1968, Kampuchea 1979, Afghanistan 1980, Chang Ching 1976, Theory of Three Worlds 1977, Den Siao Ping beginning in 1980's.

The Communist movements then divided themselves historically as: pro-Soviet (Stalinists), pro-Chinese (Maoists), pro-Korean (Chuche), pro-Albanians (Hozhais), pro-Vietnamese (Ho Chimins), pro-Cuba (Chegueverasts and Castroists) and also, independents who had their own line.

All these splits and different alternatives concerned the young sections of Marxists-Leninists parties and movements.

Young Marxists-Leninists, after 1956, did not try to form a Marxist-Leninist YOUNG COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL.

The Kiev Committee of the All-Union Guard of Bolsheviks (Youth section of the All Union Communist Party of Bolsheviks) informs with this Appeal all young Marxists-Leninists of the world about the forthcoming creation of the NEW YOUNG COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL!

Long live the Communist revolution!

Long live the Young Communist International!

Dear Comrades!

We are sending you our Appeal. We would appreciate knowing your opinion.

CONGRESS OF DEFENDERS OF THE SOCIALIST MOTHERLAND

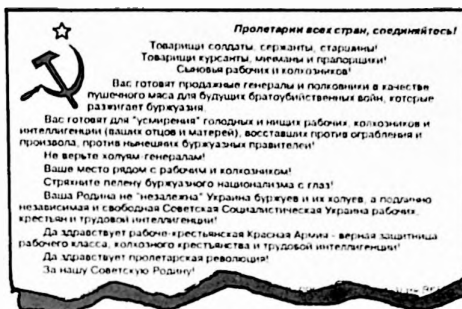

The politics of the totally robbed people of Ukraine, as in other former Soviet Republics, is not stopping. Even though in the country, the situation seems to be normal and without bloodshed, the people that were fooled by the present regime are beginning more and more to wake up and to realize the danger of the present situation. The traitorous policies of the present regime is becoming clear and more noticeable to the Soviet people. The present policies of Kuchma and company regime is becoming more and more a topic of discussions, actions and dissatisfaction in the army. Officers of Soviet Army, sworn to uphold the oath to be loyal to the Socialist Motherland, now realize more and more that the present regime is bringing Ukraine into a role of a marionette, a buffer government of anti-Russianism, and anti-Soviet orientation.

As the newspaper "Bolshevik" (Odessa) wrote that during the Day of Soviet Army, in Dniepropetrovsk, there took place a convention of Union of Soviet Officers. It took place in very unfavourable conditions due to the mechanization of the present Ukrainian regime. Many delegates from other former Soviet Republics were not allowed to cross the Ukrainian border - they were held at the border. Nevertheless, officer delegates managed to get into the city. However, the local city administration decided to start mass construction, repair of roads that didn't need to be repaired, right in front of the cultural centre where the convention was to take place ... the reasons given was that there was an epidemic of influenza. The cultural palace rented for the meeting was barred to the officer delegates. The "construction" episode, even though it was a Sunday, where never ever is there construction allowed, thus, forcing the officers to hold the meeting in the open square, even though bulldozers and excavators started to drown out the speakers.

The Convention took place. Resolutions were discussed and adopted. They decided to form a united Officers' Union, to include all the services of the army plus the militia. The aim was to re-establish the Soviet Union, rebirth of socialism. "Soviet Officers! – was the Appeal to all officers of Soviet Army and Navy – Time has come, for you to fulfill your oath, which you gave to your Motherland and its people. An officer was always brought up with honour, dedication and heroism ... Officer! You have no right to be on the sidelines, when the Motherland is in danger and the people are in danger, to whom you gave an oath to defend. You as an individual are not a soldier, but when all Officers unite their ranks under the Red Banner, we will again be the Soviet Army, defenders of our Motherland and our degraded people. Defenders of the Motherland, Unite!"

TO OUR SOVIET FRIENDS: ARISE, YOU
MIGHTY LAND!

COMMENT:

Why didn't the Trade Union leadership instruct the workers not to disrupt the Officers' Meeting? – Editors. We reprint a leaflet issued by the AUCPB in Kharkov to all soldiers, stating basically the same message as above. □

WHAT ROLE IS RELIGION PLAYING NOW IN UKRAINE?

Religion is a factor not only in Ukraine, but in all former Soviet Republics which seem to have been inundated with foreign religious orders, bibles by millions are being shipped to these republics, missionaries, preachers and bible-thumpers are flooding into every nook and cranny of former USSR, with money no object when they open their suitcases.

But ... let us look at Ukraine now in more detail. The following facts are from the theoretical journal "Communist Herald" No. 2, 1997 and in a long analysis by H.G. Khodzinsky. We print here excerpts from it.

"In today's Ukraine, the nationalistic-separatistic forces have a large influence on the present regime and practically control the whole of mass media. This nationalist movement wants to return Ukraine back to the values of the Hetman's time, not only in a religious rebirth but to stop Ukrainian language to develop as do other languages of the world, to use ancient language forms, serf mentality in the name of "saving our nationality" plus organizing from Western Ukraine convoys of buses, cars and other vehicles, all decked out in yellow and blue flags and heading for Eastern Ukraine which they call 'Red East'. They dress in old peasant and ancient costumes. All of these new 'Ukrainians' shave their heads, grow immense moustaches, and with carloads of 'Horilka-spirits' they invade cities and towns, stop traffic, stop the movement of people ... all this is under the protection of the authorities, in order to 'convert' the 'Red East' of Ukraine to follow the nationalist-capitalist, Hetman policies of the present Ukrainian regime.

The former well known writer, now the leader of the Democratic Party of Ukraine, Yavorivsky, stated: "returning into the USSR would set back Ukraine 20-30 years". He well knows (this former communist) that it was only during Soviet times that Ukraine rose in gigantic steps in all spheres of life, culture, economy and language ... but now, Ukraine is a colony of Imperialism.

In order to fight the ideas and influence of Marxism-Leninism, the present Ukrainian nationalist leaders instituted the extreme push of religion into all spheres of the people's lives, starting from kindergartens. The church has become the right-hand advisor to the State, religion is forcefully taught in schools while religious books, pamphlets, magazines are printed in tremendously large quantities, besides the flooding of foreign "religious help". Radio and TV have abnormally large time slots to propagate, in the most listened to times of the day, religious holidays are given and assemblies promoted on those days. As mushrooms after a rain, the theological seminaries, new churches, religious faculties in universities are sprouting. Monies given by the government goes to establish and re-establish countless monasteries.

It is evident that the present so-called "democrats" who were the former so-called "communists" are shown in church, with crosses on their chests, praying in a trance – people like former president of Ukraine Krawchuk, who was a devout "atheist" and ideological chief of CC CPSU in Ukraine, not to mention the alcoholic Yeltsin. TV shows them in this stance every time, thus promoting the "re-conversion" of former atheists.

At the same time as this "movement to religion" is being promoted, the rise in corruption, crime, mafia terror (they also frequent church every Sunday or even twice a week) shows that the transition from socialism to capitalism depends on the dogma of religion and the clergy.

Or how can we not call these "new Christians" robbers, when they (members of the government) are utilizing the Chernobyl Fund that the whole world is gathering money for, without any qualms are using these funds for foreign trips, shopping in foreign countries and holidays in top resorts of the world! When this became known and a scandal brewed mighty, these ministers were replaced, but they will be back in different posts soon." □

- Cherkasskaya district: more than 5,000 demonstrators from 14 industries and 15 agricultural cooperatives took part. Demands were for ousting of the president, putting on trial the leadership of RUKH, plus demands of No to NATO and for brotherhood between Russian and Ukrainian people.

UNION OF COUNCIL OF UKRAINIAN UNION OF WORKERS

There took place on June 26-27 a March on Kiev by thousands of workers from across Ukraine as a protest against the present policies of the government, asking for picketing of all government buildings and offices in all the cities, towns and villages in the Ukraine. This, to be followed by a picketing of thousands in front of the Ukrainian parliament and gathering on the main squares and streets of Kiev. Posters carried by people asked for participation of all workers for this important action, which would be also in support of the July events "March On Moscow" as organized by Victor Anpilov and Trudovaya Rossiya. The posters demanded: "All Power to the Soviets", "Stop the privatization", "State to be controlled by the working class", "Stop the genocide of our people". □

Below, we publish an excellent Open Letter to Mrs. Kuchma, wife of President Kuchma of Ukraine. Unfortunately, we had to condense it, but the message is loud and clear

TO THE FIRST LADY

By: G. Honchar, Teacher

Questions are tied in to the well-publicized on TV, radio and press program, "Wife of President – to children of Ukraine". I find this very noble that the First Lady of Ukraine should be so generous and so dedicated that she cares so much about the children of Ukraine.

But, who is financing this noble cause? If this is financed by her own finances – if so, that is to be commended ... by holding such huge Balls with glitter and sumptuous suppers, if this is done from personal pockets of the First Lady and her husband, this is really very nice. Forgive me for this question, but since I, as a teacher, have a terrible time making ends meet, while waiting for pay for 8-9 months, I'm just wondering how you manage!

Forgive me for this question, but can you, Madam Kuchma, tell the daily press reporters your yearly salary or that of your husband and your expenses, as all of us must do? This is supposed to be the law of the land, but I know that you and your husband have more pressing business to attend to. You might ask as to what is it to some teacher from Volyn district? You might even set an example, to others that now rule us. They might do the same!

Oh, how good I feel that you, Madam Kuchma, understand my questions!

Another question, if I may. It was reported by TV journalist that you, Madam Kuchma, do everything possible that the President has all the comfort in hour home possible.

Of course, I'm not against you personally giving comfort to President Kuchma. That is good and thank God that Kuchma is not a Turkish Sultan! I noticed (as did all Ukrainian people) that every time the President goes on the many trips to foreign countries, he never fails to take you along.

Forgive this question, Madam, but how much does each trip to a foreign country that you take cost you? Or should I say, costs us people?

Again, another question, Madam. Workers and teachers in most countries that you so generously visit, get paid each week or at least each month. Children are fed, they do not have to sleep in dog houses for lack of accommodation as some of our homeless children here have to do. So please tell, how much does this cost to safeguard the comfort of your husband, the President?

Oh yes, tell your husband, Madam, that his promises to the teachers that they shall receive their back pay by March 15 for 1996 that they are owed – still is not fulfilled.

Again, I must ask forgiveness for another question! Do you ever feel pangs of guilt or nervousness about the plight of the Ukrainian people? Forgive us, Liudmila Mikolaivna, since we are ordinary people, we do not travel all over the world, so that our questions are straight forward and to the point.

I had other questions to ask, but I know my limit and your patience.

You as a reader could ask me, since you knew that this Open Letter shall not be published by the official press, why did you not send the letter to the local newspaper? I knew that such a question would come up, so I did send it to the newspaper

"Soviet Volyn".

To those of my opponents who will heap all sorts of abuse on me, that I dared to write Madam Kuchma, may I point out the fact that the Constitution, even though it does not work for the benefit of Ukrainian people – Article 34 states: "Everyone has the right to think as he wishes and to express his thoughts and beliefs."

OUR COMMENT:

Congratulations to G. Honchar for this vividly expressed article. We also thank the sender Vladimir Herasymchuk for sending us this great newspaper! □

STATE VAMPIRE

Not too long ago, the Russian Red Cross had as its head a great doctor-humanist Nikolai Pirogov, and this year, is the 130th Anniversary of this great man's birthday. On this occasion, the Dmitrova section of Red Cross head, Valentina Pekpatrovna, stated the following facts: Last year, 5,205 people of this town near Moscow, Dmitrova, every eighth person became a blood donor. Over 2,257 litres of blood were donated, in order to save people's lives.

Number of blood donors in this period of "democrats" has grown greatly. We should be happy about this, of course (even though we know that people's blood is not water). But this donation of blood has in it all the ills that are present at this time for the people: unemployment, hunger, starvation, sickness ... Millions of Russians, being devastated by want, are hurrying to the blood banks in order to be able to buy a piece of bread.

A dose of blood – about 1/4 grams! is worth 120,000 rubles. (This is worth about 4 kilograms of sausage.) The donor hasn't even money to buy this sausage, in order to give him some strength. But the people keep coming and donating.

People believe that they shall get paid for their blood ...

More mothers give blood than others, in order to feed their children. They are sometimes so weak that they faint after giving blood and getting their meagre payment.

Industries in Dmitrova, as in all of Russia, are idle, dead! The giants of industry – excavators, machine building, bridge building ... even the long producing industry “Yunosts” clothing complex – are bankrupt. Wages are not being paid for months on end. In this hour of desperate need, people flock to give blood for money ... meagre as it is.

Many times, tragedy strikes at the heart of the donors: the blood bank announces that there is no money to pay for the donors’ blood – the government has no money!

“–State Vampire!” – I heard from a woman from the town of Odintsevo, near Moscow.

Well, you cannot state it any better!

MEN, WHERE ARE YOU?

I am not a communist, I’m not a democrat, I am an ordinary citizen, schooled, as all of Soviets were, thanks to the Soviet State. I love my country. My heart is being washed by blood, when I read in the newspapers, hear over the radio, watch TV, how these enemies who are no friends of Russian-Soviet people, foreign speakers, telling my country how to live and how to listen, this concerns my children and grandchildren. Reading the present government supported press, all becomes clear.

It is clear that our country is being dragged into an abyss. Yeltsin’s helpers and “democrats” do not even bother to hide their real plans now, but with cynicism, are fulfilling all of the diktats of foreign and internal enemies of our Motherland. I’m certain that our people, having finished high school and many university, understand the horrific problem that we’re living under as much as I do. They understand that there is no future for their hungry children. We see mothers begging for a piece of bread, while during Soviet times, bread was free in all factory canteens – take as much as you like! This is known to coal miners, workers in industries, unemployed, unpaid workers which has produced an army of begging bums travelling in order to feed themselves and their families. This is also understood by people who cannot face the present reality who decide to commit suicide, hanging, killing themselves by all means possible. What is horrific is that everyone understands what the problem is, but in order to save themselves, they somehow lack the courage or what must be done to save themselves, their families or our Motherland!

I cannot understand that the healthy, strong and young men, fathers of families, going on a hunger strike, as if that will bring the present regime down! Yeltsin’s TV with relish shows these men lying on cots on a hunger strike. I know that Yeltsin and his well-fed cohorts look at this and laugh, knowing full well that a hunger striker presents no danger to their regime. Even a fox or another animal will defend its young against an enemy! Your children are going hungry, while you are afraid to raise your voices! I’ll say more: you yourselves somehow voted as sheep for Yeltsin’s regime and capitalism. As the saying goes, what you voted for – that is what you got!

Who will teach, lead and agitate in your factory or enterprise? There is in the country a workers’ movement: “Trudovaya Rossia – Workers’ Russia”. This is the organization together with other communist and left movements that will lead the working class to re-establish the Soviet Union and Socialism. Whom are you waiting for, what leader are you waiting for to come and lead you? There are leaders who are dedicated to the Soviet Union and Socialism, who are honest and patriotic.

Do not waste time, help the leaders that are now leading. A leader is known by the work he does, not only by the speeches he or she makes.

AWAKE YOU, MIGHTY LAND!

LUKASHENKO PRAISES HITLER

Dear Editors!

A group of communists is writing to you from Bobruisk, Byelorussia.

In Byelorussia during the Great Patriotic War, every fourth citizen was killed or murdered by the fascists. Now, we see Kulaks again, plus anti-Sovietism. Our local Yeltsin – Lukashenko as President of Byelorussia (a former Central Committee member of CPSU – Editors) – praises Hitler. In a speech, he stated openly: "History of Germany – this is compared to Byelorussia in contemporary times ... Not everything was bad in Germany during Hitler's time – Hitler formed a mighty Germany thanks to his strong presidential rule ... This is what we should copy in Byelorussia, this is how strong and forthright must be the president of Byelorussia."

This utterance is known all over and if the hundreds of thousands of patriotic Germans that were murdered by Hitler and Nazism would rise up from their graves, plus the millions of people that died in that horrible war, amongst them over 9,000,000 Germans, if they would hear these terrible words and if our fathers, grandfathers and grandmothers who were partisans would hear these words of praise – what would they do with Lukashenko?

But unfortunately, our people have sunk to such depths of misery and stupor that they are ready to believe anyone as long as they would be able to put bread on their table ... not realizing (as Germans did realize in their majority) the buttered-up words of promises that Lukashenko promises.

These are called "communists-leaders of opposition". How come that the communist-socialist newspapers that we read do not expose this Hitler lover? His demagogic utterances that he wants to join "Russia in a Union" and utilize the Belovezh Agreement which saw the dismemberment of the Soviet Union, as Hitler utilized the Versailles Treaty to his advantage.

Lukashenko is a deadly enemy of the Soviet Union and Soviet people!

General Lebed (Pinochet) called Lukashenko a "close political ally"!

How come that the leaders of communist movements and parties do not want to open up a concrete plan of attack against this danger? We need unity and as in 1941 we must have a Peoples' War against these parasites and to struggle for our liberation, for socialism and for USSR.

We shall take up the struggle to have one All Union Soviet newspaper that will struggle for the Soviet Union.

We shall never give up our Motherland to Hitler or Pinochet lovers!

From Journal:
"COMMUNIST HERALD"
Krivoy Rog, Ukraine

This theoretical journal came out with its second issue (No. 2, 1997) which contains interesting materials about the Communist movement in Ukraine and the former republics.

The Editorial Board, under the Editorship of S.G. Saveliev, tries to present its own analysis of each movement and party in former USSR and we publish its analysis, with which we might and might not agree. BUT ... we feel that our readers should know the gamut of different movements, different parties and different proposed solutions to the resurrection of the Soviet Union.

Eventually, we feel that all these movements and political parties shall unite into a mighty force capable of overthrowing the present regime and resurrecting socialism and the Soviet Union.

"Today in the country, there exists many communist parties, their peculiarities are territorial: Communist Party of Russian Federation is only on the territory of the Russian Federation, Communist Party of Ukraine – only in Ukraine, Party of Communists of Byelorussia – only in Byelorussia and others. Only the All Union Communist Party of Bolsheviks is present in all of the former territories of USSR. The analysis of the Russian Communist Party-CPSU shows that both parties are not proletarian. The program is basically pro-Khrushchev in their economic outlook, which brought on the tragedy of the USSR.

Program of the Russian Communist Workers Party does not allow it to be proletarian.

Nevertheless in 1991-1993, this party had a proletarian soul. From the very beginning of the RCWP, there were already a right wing and a left wing in the party ... Leningrad centre and Moscow centre: Leningrad was headed by Tiulkin while Moscow was headed by Victor Anpilov ... hero of the street struggles. The activity of the Moscow RCWP gave it the leadership in the struggles, Leningrad centre in the meanwhile brought the RCWP into the bureaucratic structures of Union of Communist Parties-CPSU, Rosskomsoyuz. The party then became a party of parliamentary tactics and faded. The recent splits in the RCWP showed that there appeared a proletarian wing headed by Anpilov.

All Union Communist Party of Bolsheviks is solid theoretically in its documents and writings, but unfortunately, it does little public work. Its leadership has concentrated on international ties, has practically left the field of battle to others. It was a mistake that they boycotted the previous elections.

Communist Party of Russian Federation (Zyuganov) is not a proletarian party – it is against revolutionary struggles, basing itself solely on parliamentary form of struggle. Judicial laws never bring about a revolution, they only make its results stronger. In this party, there are also two wings: left radicals and “coexistence group – accommodators”.

Union of Communist Parties-CPSU – these are party bureaucrats who want to rule and direct all other groupings, former members of Politbureau of CPSU. They have hamstrung its membership and frozen its political work in other former Soviet republics. Their concept is to rejuvenate the “Union of Soviet People” – another version of “Union of Independent States” as proposed by Gorbachev and now ruled by Yeltsin.

There is not one party that has a 100% interest of ALL the Soviet people on the scene today. We see a spectrum of non-proletarian parties, parties sick with Western “pluralism” in the Soviet Union.

Seeing that the revolutionary soul is being paralyzed, we deem it necessary to form a party, a new party. There is no alternative. Time will not wait for anyone.

What kind of party should our new Communist Party of Soviet People be?

- Party of the thoughts of Marx, Engels, Lenin, Stalin, contemporary situation which produces leaders steeled in revolutionary fire and struggle.

- Proletarian party of the dictatorship of the workers.

- All Union international party capable of heading the movement for the resurrection of a sovereign USSR.

- Party whose main aim is to struggle without compromising against the anti-peoples’s regime, for socialism and communism.

- Party that will not allow into its ranks the reborn former members of CPSU. Let us remember that in the 28th Congress of the CPSU, 66% of the delegates-traitors voted for market economy-capitalism.

- This will be the party of Soviet People. The territorial name (Soviet Union) means even more than Soviet people. The biggest and the most raw nerve of the present “democrats” is our Sovietism: Soviet patriotism, heroic Soviet history, Soviet ideology, dedication to Soviet Motherland, to Socialism.

From here then, is the name we have chosen – COMMUNIST PARTY OF SOVIET PEOPLE. This suggestion comes from the hearts and souls and was born on the earth of Soviet Ukraine.”

DEAR READER:

We hope that our Soviet friends and leaders of various movements mentioned in this article will write us and have their opinions on this, yet another suggestion of a Communist party that tries to resurrect the Soviet Union. □

From:
“People’s Antifascist

FOR A PEOPLE’S ANTIFASCIST REVOLUTION!

Workers! Toilers! All people of Soviet Union!

Revolutionary situation in the country is turning into a people’s revolution. Millions of workers on the territory of Russia and parts of Ukraine are striking, holding hunger strikes, barricading roads and are preparing for an insurrection. At the end of October of 1996, workers in Yurga, Kuzbass, made the first insurrection where workers took over the administration buildings with nothing but rocks in their hands. In many districts and cities, the strikers and demonstrators have established “Committees of Salvation”, beginning of dual power in these localities. More and more strikers are now demanding the resignation of the administrative organs of power. The situation is maturing into a people’s revolution.

Why is it that millions of our people lost their rights, lost their jobs and the future for their children and grandchildren? Because the national bourgeoisie of the Union Republics broke apart the Soviet Union, divided it into small parts, factories, industries were grabbed as their private property, who do not pay us the wages earned, while they themselves are living high and mighty. They instigated civil-ethnic wars and making money out of the armaments while building themselves villas and making of our youth parasites and bandits. Privatization was supported by all, such as Chubais, Lebed, Chernomyrdin, Luzhkov, Yeltsin, Zhirinovskiy, Novodvorskaya, Barlashov and even a section of the CPRF deputies. Lebed is being promoted by the bankers and transnational corporations to take over the country. The crisis of the new capitalists in Russia is of such proportions, that to hold on to capitalism against the coming storm can only be halted by Chubais and Lebed by fascist terror, split the workers' unity and send it underground.

The best chance of splitting the working class and sending them to jail under a fascist regime are the national-fascists, who bank their support on bankers, directors of enterprises, who have such tremendous strength in capitalism. Chubais, under direct support of USA, was able to temporarily halt these fascists to gain a foothold at the helm of the government. National fascist Lebed, thrown out of the government not too long ago, promotes himself as discriminated against (as did Yeltsin in his time), went to the USA saying that he is open "to all variations" as to how to gain the president's chair and establish a fascist dictatorship as was done by Pinochet of Chile (whom Lebed admires, visits and quotes). During this time, his secret advisor, the mafiosi-fascist Luzhkov (Mayor of Moscow) plus the fascist leader Bashkirov are organizing all across the country "armed soldiers' patriotic clubs" which will act as the armed punitive detachments for Lebed's "Russian Legionnaires" - bands of black-shirted youth with swastikas on their uniforms. The fascist leader Korzhakov is trying to become the Governor of Tulska district. Zhirinovskiy, the leader of another fascist party, applauds in the bourgeois Duma Lukashenko of Byelorussia, who is hiding under the flag of Byelorussia, abolished the Supreme Soviet of Byelorussia and is preparing to install there an anti-communist regime.

The transnational corporate power that supports Chubais thinks that he has a chance against the national bourgeoisie. Chubais in fascist manner has brought the working class into despair, economic disaster of millions of Soviet people and he has no qualms to go further over these bodies to achieve what the transnational corporations are demanding of him. This is why Chubais is gathering in his Dacha near Moscow for meetings of top ranking officers of the army and Secret Services? He is also preparing fascist putsch. He is supported by millionaire bankers such as Berezovsky and such representatives of transnational corporations as the psychopath Novodvorskaya.

The Chernomyrdin apparatus is swaying from one side to the other between the national and transnational capital structures, and he cannot hold on to power between the two compradatorial powers and the upsurge in revolutionary upsurge of the working class.

WORKERS OF THE SOVIET UNION SHOULD UNDERSTAND IMMEDIATELY THAT THE POSSIBILITY OF A FASCIST PUTSCH IS REAL AND IS GROWING IN POSSIBILITY EVERYDAY!

There are leaders of this calibre waiting for the signal in Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Turkmenia and other former Soviet Republics to start the process of grabbing power and installing a fascist dictatorship.

People! You are being fooled by all sorts of bourgeois newspapers, the media who try to lull your vigilance. The national-socialist demagogues try to muddle the thinking of the protesting masses. Workers ... the "druzhiniki" (storm troopers) in black uniforms who are sponsored by Barkashov, Zhirinovskiy and Limonov, attack communists at meetings.

We should chase these fascist thugs from our meetings!

We are appealing to all peaceful people, trade unionists, to all "salvation committees" to save the workers from starvation, for all members of the Communist Party of Russian Federation who are communist, Marxists-Leninists to join us. Otherwise, the present regime will undertake to close all of our parties and formations of Anti-Fascist Fronts.

We are appealing to all Soviet anti-fascists and Soviet internationalists, defenders of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, from the Russian Communist Workers' Party; "Trudovaya Rossia Movement", Communist Party of Soviet Union (CPSU); All Union Communist Party of Bolsheviks; United Front of Workers; Russian Party of Communists; Party of the Dictatorship of the Proletariat; Marxist Workers Party; All Union Lenin Communist Union of Youth;

All Union Young Guard of Bolsheviks; Russian Communist Union of Youth and all other organizations of workers to unite in the Peoples' Anti-Fascist Front of USSR, against all terroristic anti-communist movements, against fascist-compradators, and against fascist-nationalists. Otherwise, the fascist movement will take advantage of the disorganization of the communist movement, will jail the activists, close all parties and will terrorize all movements and parties that call themselves communists, as is done now in Turkey. The fulfillers of these directives, the OMON police, on November 1 in Leningrad, have already forcibly evicted the Central Committee of the Russian Communist Workers Party from their headquarters – and this is just the beginning.

This is the most important task facing the Soviet people – the establishment of country-wide Peoples Anti-Fascist Front of USSR! We must establish in all localities a "workers' militia" in order to defend our rights from attacks either by OMON or the fascist thugs. We must all call the people for a country-wide Political Strike in case the country would be on the verge of a fascist take-over. We must establish a dual power structure as was done under Lenin. We must reconstitute the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics!

OPEN LETTER TO UKRAINIAN GOVERNMENT

Devastation of world renowned cultural groups is taking place in Ukraine!

We are appealing to you as guarantors of carrying out the politics of building and support of cultural groups, and the rights of its citizens.

The first rate cultural collectives of Ukraine, known all over the world for professionalism in promoting and interpreting Ukrainian culture, national pride of Ukraine, today these groups are on the verge of extinction and trying to work under insurmountable conditions. Artists are without pay, they are hungry and they are working only on their enthusiasm, because they did not get paid for over 4 months.

These ensembles are unique in their expertise and are living monuments to folk and classical repertoire. Today, some people in the present government are determined to liquidate these world renowned cultural collectives, since they seem not to be needed by the "new Ukraine".

The government has tremendous budgets assigned to the Ministry of Culture which are spent on grandiose "shows" of very low quality, on festivals that no one really cares about, carnivals, reconstruction of palace "Ukraine", money is available for new Western oriented cultural groups. This is nothing but ideological diversion.

We ask you to look into this grave matter quickly, give these famous ensembles the status as they had before and undertake to finance them as they should be financed as the pride of Ukraine and its culture.

Even the composers are forced to eke out living doing work which absolutely does not bring up the young generations in the folklore or classical genre.

We hope that you will take steps to correct this terrible injustice.

This Open Letter was adopted unanimously on January 22, 1997 at the joint meeting of heads of artistic collectives of Ukraine on behalf of the members of these collectives.

- Signed,
- Head of State Choir of Ukraine Veriovka, V.G. Martinenko, Peoples' Artist of Ukraine;
- Head of State Academic Choire and Dance, Virsky, S.S. Vikharev;
- Head of State Capella of Ukraine "Dumka", O.O. Tomashevsky;
- Head of State Orchestra of Peoples' Instruments, P.P. Chukhrey, Peoples' Artist of Ukraine;
- Head of State Capella of Bandurists, V.I. Tkach

So much for "independent culture", "we want our own Ukrainian culture and not Russified culture", etc., etc.

These ensembles travelled the world, the pride and glory of Ukrainian people, liked and admired by all nationalities. When capitalism arrived in Ukraine, "nationalistic Ukrainians" that are in power now, easily sold off their "cultural heritage"! As the saying goes – "Money talks, culture walks"! □

THERE ARE COMMUNIST PARTIES AND COMMUNIST PARTIES!

All (without exception) parties, movements, groups – functioning (and not functioning) today of the territory of former USSR – you can classify them under 3 categories:

1. OPENLY COLLABORATIONIST parties and movements – openly on the side of international imperialism. These parties are the 1st line of defense for the victory of world capital in the USSR. In this century yet, these parties will be tried and declared as anti-peoples organizations, with all the coming consequences.

2. SECRETLY COLLABORATIONIST parties and movements, factually are finding themselves serving the world bourgeois (and present Russian bourgeois), but they cleverly hide themselves and their work – behind portraits of Lenin and, the subverted Marxist-Leninist ideology. In this historical period, these represent the most danger to the Soviet and world revolutionary movement, and they are the 2nd line of defense of the temporary victorious capitalism. These are Quislings – they also will have to pay for their treachery.

3. BOLSHEVIK and PSEUDO-BOLSHEVIK parties and groups – present us today a complex riddle for the revolutionary, partisan and underground fighters of all continents. To pass judgement on their work and stand based only on their documents (party and newspapers) is sometimes difficult, as the leading personalities of these parties are all former members and leaders of the previous CPSU, and somehow these (not all of them – Editors) elements fully try to convert their new members and have them contract the sickness which impregnated the CPSU since 1953.

The understanding of CLASS INSTINCT, CLASS HATRED, CLASS STRUGGLE - these do not find their place in these former party functionaries. In order to fully understand this third group of parties, you need to attend their meetings and discussions, congresses, but not in the Presidium, but together with the rank and file membership.

Today in the USSR, the Bolshevik and pseudo-Bolshevik parties and groups grow as “mushrooms after the rain” – the Bolshevik Platform of Ukraine as is the Bolshevik Platform of Russia recommends utilizing the 12 Stalin's Conditions in order to judge which parties-movements are for Bolshevism:

“In order to bring out the BOLSHEVIZATION, it is absolutely necessary, to the best of abilities, to have a basis, without which it is impossible to BOLSHEVIZE a communist party:

1. It is imperative, that the party should look at itself not as an addition to parliamentary mechanism, as often they (the social democrats) look upon themselves and not only as a free adjunct to professional unions, as some (anarcho-syndicalists) believe, but as a HIGHER form of class unity of the proletariat, asked to lead formed workers' movement, from trade union workers to parliamentary reactions.

2. It is necessary, that the party, especially its leadership should fully be versed in the revolutionary theory of Marxism, which is unbreakably tied to the revolutionary practice.

3. It is necessary, that the party should have slogans and directives based not only on learned formulas and historical parallels, but as a result of sober analysis of concrete problems of the revolutionary movement, internal and external, also from revolutionary experience of other countries.

4. It is necessary that the party should check and re-check the correct slogans and directives put forward in the fire of revolutionary struggles by the masses.

5. It is necessary, that all the work of the party, especially if there are social-democratic tendencies inside its ranks, that it should be cleansed and put on the correct road, in order that every step of the party and all appearances by the party would lead to revolutionize the masses, to bring up a wide section of the masses in the revolutionary spirit.

6. It is necessary, that the party would always uphold the principal direction (not to confuse it with sectarianism) with maximum contacts always with the workers (not to confuse it with following the tail end of events) without which the party cannot teach the masses or learn from them, not only to uplift and lead the masses to the understanding of the party program, but to be in their midst, listening, guiding and to hear their problems and suggestions.

7. It is necessary, that the party should be able to recognize in their work the revolutionary moment of the masses' readiness for revolutionary activity (but not to be confused with revolutionary adventurism) with Marxism, with its tactics, manouvers (not to be confused with adaptation) without which the party cannot deal with all forms of struggle and organization, to combine the daily interests of the proletariat with basic interests of the proletarian revolution and to combine in its work the legal and illegal activities.

8. It is necessary, that the party should never cover up its mistakes, that it should never be afraid of criticism, that it should be capable of training its cadres on their own mistakes.

9. It is necessary, that the party should be able to pick from among its own members the best cadres, devoted to the cause, be capable to lead the revolutionary proletariat, and schooled enough, to become decisive leaders of the proletariat revolution, capable of formulating tactics and strategy of Leninism.

10. It is necessary, that the party systematically uphold proletarian discipline, and cleanse itself of different opportunistic elements, having in mind, as a task, to achieve maximum monolithic stage.

11. It is necessary, that the party should control and analyze its decisions and directives, basing itself on its own cohesion, clearness of tasks ahead, unity of practical tasks and understanding in full the directives of the party from the point of view of the masses of the party.

12. It is necessary, that the party systematically look after the carrying out of its decisions and directives, otherwise, it can lose itself in useless decision making, capable only of having the workers lose faith in the party.

Without these and other similar ideas, BOLSHEVIZATION is just only noise."

In a very interesting article called "EXECUTIONERS HAVE NEW REPLACEMENTS", the points made are very revealing and will interest the readers of NSC. We give a shortened version of the article.

• People living in Bukovina, Ukraine state that the way the present leaders of "Independent" Ukraine are promoting nationalism and fascism, pretty soon, there will appear monuments to Hitler, Mussolini and Antonescu in the village, town and city squares of Ukraine.

• Present moves of the government is to honour the graves, erect the monuments to bandits like Stepan Bandera, one of the leaders of Hitler's "Halichina" Division. Every street, square or village in Ukraine, especially in Western Ukraine, cannot have a street or square named after Zhukov, Konev, Vatutin, Cherniakovski – heroes of the struggle against fascism.

• Already for 5 years, the ultranationalists are not only waging a fight against left forces, but also against Russians and Jews. Not too long ago, the mayor of Ivano-Frankivsk, B. Borovich, in front of school children, asked them to "go along the road and be loyal to Stepan Bandera"!

• The article lists atrocities committed by these former butchers who now are considered heroes and streets, squares and monuments are built to them, while the liberators' monuments are demolished.

• The article also lists war criminals who found safe haven in the West, amongst them is butcher Peter Voynovsky who now resides in New York. This criminal came to Bukovina and was welcomed as a "hero" with a parade, feasts, honours and asked to unveil a monument to this bandit. He was applauded by the nationalists, dressed in fascist uniforms and crosses given to them by German fascists and they held a parade through the streets of Chernivtsi and then in Kiev. These people who applauded this butcher think and believe that they are part of the "master race" and look at all others as "foreigners".

• Here are the slogans that these present Ukrainian mafiosi-infested rulers presented to the citizens in Ivano-Frankivsk:

– Jews! Get out of our cities! We are warning you for the last time to leave our Ukraine. Get out, if you do not want to suffer the consequences! Time is coming soon, when we are going to give you a list of what you are accountable for. Death to the Jews! Glory to Ukraine!"

Well, it seems that there is a new generation ready to take over from former executioners and fulfill what the older bandits were not able to accomplish.

– Ivan Matveychuk
Chernivtsi

We understand why the daily media in capitalist countries will not print these stories. We understand why the reactionary ethnic media, especially Ukraine ones in the West, will not print these stories also!

But, we are surprised that the so-called "progressive" Ukrainian newspapers or magazines in the West somehow will not touch this exposé which brooks terrible consequences if allowed to happen.

Why are these publications sitting on the fence? □

THE LAST ARTICLE BY J.V. STALIN IN "PRAVDA",
JANUARY 13, 1953

"SPIES AND KILLERS
UNDER THE MASK
OF PROFESSORS-DOCTORS"

"Security organs of Internal Affairs have belatedly uncovered a terroristic group of doctors, having as their main aim to shorten the life of active leaders of Soviet Union.

Doctors were working under orders of American and British intelligence. They were recruited through the international Zionist, bourgeois-nationalistic organization "Joint", masking themselves as a humanitarian organization.

Enemies, right opportunists become stronger as socialism gathers more and more victories. Some of our comrades came to the conclusion that now we do not have to be so cautious, the danger has passed of diversions, sabotage and spies. Only right opportunists can think like this, people standing on anti-Marxist positions, that "class struggle" is no longer valid or important. They do not – or will not – understand that our successes lead to the enemies becoming more bold and vicious as our march towards socialism and communism becomes clearer.

In the USSR, the exploiting classes have long ago been liquidated, but there still remain people who harbour bourgeois thoughts and dreams, morals – living people, hidden enemies of our people.

Some of our state security organs have lost their vigilance, were touched by the thoughtlessness. Organs of security unfortunately did not catch or did not discover soon enough these hidden enemies inside the organization of doctors.

But history should already have shown us facts, that under the mask of doctors, there existed elements, these killers, like "doctor Levin and Pletnev", who as enemies of Soviet Union, with improper medicines and diagnostic prescriptions, have actually murdered the great Russian writer A.M. Gorky, the excellent leaders, communist of Soviet Government V.V. Kuibishev and V.R. Menzhinsky.

Soviet people with anger and trepidation demand action against this band of doctors and their foreign masters. These traitors, selling themselves for dollars and sterling, these people should be swept away as you would a deadly viper snake. Let these people not think that they will not be found out – we will find them out, we will find a road to them in order to tell them our last word and demand punishment."

J.V. Stalin

P.S. This was the last article by J.V. Stalin. He foretold us the danger if we are not vigilant against the internal enemies. These warnings were not heeded by the leaders such as Khrushchev - Beria. These "leaders" rehabilitated these doctors. Internal counter-revolutionaries and Imperialism have thus dismembered the USSR.

OUR COMMENT: J.V. Stalin was absolutely correct as history has proven beyond a shadow of a doubt.

Unfortunately, even today, after the temporary collapse of the Soviet Union, not only Stalin is vilified and demonized by enemies of socialism, but there are some comrades who are still under illusion that J.V. Stalin was incorrect with his thesis that as Socialism gains momentum, victories and advances towards communism, the last remaining internal enemies will become bolder and bolder in their struggle against socialism!

Even a fool can see that this is exactly what transpired! It was the internal enemies, combined with world Imperialism that managed to dissolve the USSR!

If Stalin's warnings had been heeded, it would certainly be a different world today.

Also, it is time to call a spade a spade: reactionary ideologies, whether they be fascist, Zionist, Nazi, fundamentalist – they all serve the ruling class, not the working class!

Time has come to unmask these "democratic ideologies" for what they really are! – fascism, no matter under what arm band it hides – whether it be Russian twin-eagle of the tsars or present regime of Yeltsin; whether it hides under the stars and stripes of USA, under the Star of David or under Muslim fundamentalism – is a reactionary ideology! □

ANOTHER BOOK ON CLASS STRUGGLE IN USSR FROM 1970-1980S!

Since the advent of Gorbachev's perestroika (destroika is more to the point), books have appeared which analyse and point out as to what exactly happened.

The first book to come out was Nina Andreeva's "bombshell" which took the present regime by surprise and which was quoted and printed in many issues of our Northstar Compass journal. This was the first really authentic "eye-opener" as to the causes of the temporary demise of the Soviet Union.

Other books, analyses and criticisms appeared in Russian. Nina Andreeva's book is now translated in many languages around the world.

Below, we publish very short summary of a book called "CLASS STRUGGLE IN USSR FROM 1970 – 1980 and the RESTORATION OF CAPITALISM", by A.N. Dolenko.

"The bombardment by cannons and tanks of the House of Soviets in October of 1993 by the traitors, not only showed the dictatorship of the bourgeoisie, but it was staged as a TV spectacle as is done by the American media when they showed the bombardment of Iraq – showing the might, the total dictatorship of American World Policeman.

The book shows the changes that took place in the structures of Soviet society during 1970s and 1980s, the main causes of the depoliticalization of the masses by the bureaucratic echelons of the country, who made their position stronger inside the CPSU. The CPSU was not only filled with these elements, but was at the same time proceeding to dismantle bit by bit the Socialist Motherland. The advisors around Brezhnev allowed tremendous harm to be instituted into the fabric of the party and the state. This came after the traitor Khrushchev laid the foundation stone to this dismemberment. People in power became discredited in people's eyes, such as Poliansky, Shelepin, then Romanov. But ... under very strange circumstances, the real patriots died suddenly, such as Kulakov, Masherov and others. But, during all these intrigues, the opportunists like Gorbachev, Yeltsin, Volkogonov were climbing the ladder of power.

The economic devastation that our country suffered during the perestroika period is 5 times higher than all the devastation caused by German fascism and war on the territory of USSR!

Due to the well thought-out genocide in Russia, Ukraine and Byelorussia from 1992–1995, about 5.4 million people died as a result of hardships and lack of medical help. This does not include the natural deaths of population that transpires at all times.

But a new vanguard is being mobilized among the working class – intelligentsia, officers of the armed forces, farmers. There are subjective and objective opportunities to get rid of the present mafia-infested bourgeoisie. This is the rebirth of the Soviet Union and the power of the workers ... this is forthcoming and unstoppable!"

A.N. Dolenko, Author

DEAR READERS:

Documentary materials are on hand, ready to get them printed in brochure form or supplements, but we would need financial support.

Just recently, we received word from Galina Savchenko of Kiev that E. Scherbakov, who is featured in the above book, was assassinated at point blank range by present Ukrainian nationalists in Donetsk, as he was returning from a silver wedding anniversary of I. Kabzon.

We hope that enough finances come in in order for us to publish the book that exposes the events that transpired in former Soviet Union.

OPEN FORUM

OUR NATIVE PEOPLES – AND GENOCIDE AGAINST THEM!

We are thankful to our reader-supporter, a great humanitarian and a dedicated comrade, Lydia S. Karhu from USA who has sent us this moving document issued by the Southwest Indian Foundation of USA.

There was a time when our people covered the land as the waves of a wind-ruffled sea cover its shell paved floor, but that time long since passed away with the greatness of tribes that are now but a mournful memory ... To us the ashes of our ancestors are sacred and their resting place is hallowed ground ... Our religion is the traditions of our ancestors – the dreams of our old men, given them in the solemn hours of night by the Great Spirit; and the visions of our sachems, and is written in the hearts of our people ... Our dead never forget the beautiful world that gave them being. They still love its verdant valleys, its murmuring rivers, its magnificent mountains, sequestered vales and verdant lined lakes and bays, and ever yearn in tender, fond affection over the lonely hearted living, and often return from the Happy Hunting Grounds to visit, guide, console and comfort them.

It matters little where we pass the remnant of our days. They will not be many. The Indians' night promises to be dark. Not a single star of hope hovers above his horizon. Sad-voiced winds moan in the distance. Grim fate seems to be on the Red Man's trail, and wherever he goes he will hear the approaching footsteps of his fell destroyer and prepare stolidly to meet his doom, as does the wounded doe that hears the approaching footsteps of the hunter.

A few more moons. A few more winters – and not one of the descendants of the mighty hosts that once moved over this broad land or lived in happy homes, protected by the Great Spirit, will remain to mourn over the graves of a people – once more powerful and hopeful than yours. But why should I mourn at the untimely fate of my people? Tribe follows tribe, and nation follows nation, like the waves of the sea. It is the order of nature, and regret is useless. Your time of decay may be distant, but it will surely come, for even the White Man whose God walked and talked with him as friend with friend, cannot be exempt from the common destiny. We may be brothers after all. We will see.

Every part of this soil is sacred in the estimation of my people. Every hillside, every valley, every plain and grove, has been hallowed by some sad or happy event in days long vanished. Even the rocks, which seem to be dumb and dead as they swelter in the sun along the silent shore, thrill with memories of stirring events connected with the lives of my people, and the very dust upon which you now stand responds more lovingly to their footsteps than to yours, because it is rich with the blood of our ancestors and our bare feet are conscious of the sympathetic touch. Our departed braves, fond mothers, glad, happy-hearted maidens, and even our little children who lived here and rejoiced here for a brief season, will love these sombre solitudes and at eventide they greet shadowy returning spirits. And when the last Red Man shall have perished, and the memory of my tribe shall have become a myth among the White Men, these shores will swarm with the invisible dead of my tribe, and when your children's children think themselves alone in the field, the store, the shop, upon the highway, or in the silence of the pathless woods, they will not be alone. In all the earth, there is no place dedicated to solitude. At night when the streets of your cities and villages are silent and you think them deserted, they will throng with the returning hosts that once filled them and still love this beautiful land. The White Man will never be alone.

Let him be just and deal kindly with my people, for the dead are not powerless. Dead, did I say? There is no death, only a change of worlds. □

NEGLECTED HUMAN BEINGS

Children in the United States are deprived unbelievably. According to a UNICEF report, the U.S. child poverty rate is more than double that of other major industrial countries. In comparing child health worldwide, only children in the United States and Britain are worse off now than they were in 1970. One in five American children live below the poverty level and suffer health problems because of it. The report said that children in the USA who grow up without a father "more than doubled from 1960 to the end of the 1980s". It also noted that "by far the highest murder rate for young people – with nine of ten killings of youths in the industrialized world – takes place in the U.S."

Tufts University's Center on Poverty, Hunger and Nutrition has estimated that "hunger afflicts about 12-million American children, most pronounced in the South." A national survey of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services found that 22,000 infants were abandoned in 1991 in the nation's hospitals.

Child Health Day, begun in Calvin Coolidge's time 65 years ago, issued a report through the American Health Foundation, Washington, scoring our children with "below-average grade of C". Other failing grades were given for the highest number of youths aged 10-19 who are murdered or injured by firearms - more than 4,000 children each year.

Horace Mann (1796-1859), American educator, summed up the situation: "A human being is not, in any proper sense, a human being until he is educated." □

MURDER AT THE VATICAN

POPE JOHN PAUL I, VICTIM OF INTRIGUE

By: John M. Swomley
"THE HUMAN QUEST"

Everyone knows that the pope is the only absolute monarch left in the Western world. Few, however, realize that in some respects he is the captive of what is known as the Curia, a group of cardinals and bishops who administer the worldwide organization of the Roman Catholic Church, including its wealth, public relations, and appointments. This book - "In God's Name: An Investigation into The Murder Of Pope John Paul I", by David A. Yallop (Bantam, 1984) - is significant because of its revealing accounts of Vatican corruption, including the author's claim that Pope John Paul I was murdered after only thirty-three days in office.

That pope, known as Albino Luciani, intended major reforms, such as changing the Vatican's position on birth control. He also intended to replace Cardinal Jean Villot, Secretary of State; Cardinal Cody of Chicago; Archbishop Marcinkus of Toronto, Roberto Calvi, Licio Gelli and others involved in the Vatican bank scandal.

Luciani's only medicine, a bottle of liquid Efortil, was beside his bed. He had been taking it for years to alleviate low blood pressure. The author believes it was spiked by one of a number of tasteless poisons.

He said that as soon as Luciani's death was discovered, Villot hastily took away the medicine, the pope's note on his transfers and appointments, his last will, his glasses and slippers, which were

• ENLIGHTENMENT LIGHT-METER: Churchmen are saying Catholics should pray for forgiveness for their supporting and applauding dictators all these years, and the U.S. Military apologizes for preparing manuals and running schools teaching soldiers how best to violate human rights. Is this a back-handed admission that Socialism is inevitably coming?

The author notes that when John Paul II was elected, he engaged in "business as usual". He was told of the changes that Luciani had planned, the corruption and criminal activities of Cardinal Cody, and the information about Vatican finances. "He was told of Luciani's dialogue with the U.S. State Department and of the meeting scheduled with the Congressional subcommittee on population and birth control", and his general position about changing the Vatican's position on birth control. was in the position to bring all Luciani's plans to fruition. Not one of Luciani's proposed changes became a reality. Whoever had murdered the pope had not murdered in vain."

Villot remained as Secretary of State, Marcinkus "continued to control the Vatican Bank" and "the criminal activities with Banco Ambrosiano flourished". John Paul II also retained Cardinal Cody, who was "lavish with his gifts" that "were secretly funnelled into Poland". When the pope visited Chicago, Cody gave him $50,000 in a small wooden box "as a personal gift". Meanwhile, the U.S. government investigated allegations that Cody had illegally used tax exempt church funds for a "lifelong friend, Helen Wilson", and for other purposes. Cody refused to respond to subpoenas from a Federal grand jury. When he died in April 1982, the pope appointed as Cody's successor Archbishop Joseph Bernardin, who subsequently concluded that Cody was involved in no wrongdoing, but he provided no documentary evidence and simply said Cody "did not always follow preferred accounting procedures". One gets from the reading of this book that the various officials of the church always cover up scandals that involve other officials.

Pope John Paul II "publicly berates Nicaraguan priests for their involvement in politics, and simultaneously gives his blessing for large quantities of dollars to be made available, secretly and illegally, to Solidarity in Poland. It is a papacy of double standards: one for the pope and another for the rest of mankind. The papacy of John Paul II has been a triumph for the wheeler-dealers, for the corrupt, for the international thieves ... while His Holiness has maintained a very highly publicized image ... "The author then discusses

Pope John Paul II's intimate relationship with "the extreme right wing" Opus Dei, "A secret society, something that is strictly forbidden by the Church". Yet, it seeks a "takeover of the Roman Catholic Church ... under Pope John Paul II, Opus Dei has flourished. If the present pope is not a member of Opus Dei, he is to its adherents everything they could wish a pope to be. One of his first acts after his election was to go to the tomb of the founder of Opus Dei and pray. Subsequently he has granted the sect the status of a personal prelature ..."

This organization has, according to its own claims, "members working on over six hundred newspapers, journals and scientific publications scattered around the world. It has members in over fifty radio and television stations ... three of its members were in the cabinet of Spanish dictator Francisco Franco ... Opus Dei is massively wealthy".

Also in the book is a description of various murders of Italian officials who tried to investigate the Vatican Bank or other agencies.

The author's interesting preface notes, "Among those I cannot thank publicly are the people resident within Vatican City who contacted me and initiated my [three year] investigation ... the fact that men and women living within the heart of the Roman Catholic Church cannot speak openly and be identified is an eloquent comment on the state of affairs within the Vatican".

AUDIO TAPES FROM MOSCOW "VOICE OF MOSCOW"

All Union Communist Party of Bolsheviks have come out with a practical idea to get the message of socialism across to ever wider audience in former USSR, since the press, radio and TV are in the hands of the present bourgeois regime, thus eliminating the possibility of communist and socialist forces to be in the position of influencing large sections of the masses.

The newspapers that these parties publish are not in millions of copies, due to the cost factor and the state apparatus which makes certain that the cost of printing and newsprint is prohibitive.

Nina Andreeva, General Secretary of the AUCPB, has sent us 3 audio cassettes which explain in Russian the situation, the history of USSR and the present situation; you hear the voice of J.V. Stalin on November 7th, 1941; greetings for 1997 from Nina Andreeva; also about the struggles in the working class plus revolutionary poetry, music of those years and a very uplifting commentary.

There are 3 audio-cassettes in Russian - one hour each.

For those that understand Russian, these are excellent materials that will uplift your spirits and give you an up-to-date news analysis of events taking place in Russia and other former republics.

We shall try and do an English commentary version, since these tapes are not only contemporary, but historical.

You can purchase the 3 tapes for $30.00 from Northstar Compass □

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

From:

EUROPE (Austria)

By: Jerry Morse

Some interesting items are being talked about there and appearing in media items.

First, the influence of American Capitalists in Moscow to protect their financial interests, and to try and bleed away monies from Russian workers, even the unemployed goes far beyond capabilities even as suggested by Marx. For example, the questions of market supervision and attempts to unify the two camps is a lesson that would have curled Marx's whiskers. In Moscow, Russia's Federal Securities Commission tried to place some regulations and control on stock markets which are controlled by US financiers. But the Commission cannot change the way the new Dolly-like Central Bank with commercial banks which function in greener pastures.

Deputy chairman Kolosnikov (Big Alex) of the security commission said, "the decision to unify the regulatory regime for both debt and equity markets would enable the Central Bank and Commission to combine their strengths thus leading to more rigorous scrutiny of licensing and trading procedures in both markets"! Remember before, Central Bank regulated government debt market and Big Alex's chambers monitored the equity markets. There were lots of debates here, with the debate moderator sitting in Washington, New York and Chicago. Along comes first deputy primed minister Anatotally Chubais with his statement that main task of state regulators would be to (get this, probably said in Russian with an English accent) "defend shareholder rights and enable privatized companies to issue shares and bonds. And that they would also encourage the creation of common registry, custodial and dealing systems for both the debt and equity markets."

(If anything ever smelled of Wall St., in their business of stealing from working classes, we're getting there.) If this isn't reason more for the communist parties to explore and expose carefully what in hell those Moscow puppets are planning in financial foundation building of Soviet Capitalism, and chances to fill their own pockets, then the time for a trip through the big gate is again needed!

Dr. Dmitry Vasiliev, Chairman of the Securities Commission suffers a set back, because his chambers (and maids) had tried to build up Russia's capital markets along Wall St. – and nicely said, Anglo-Saxon lines. Even some tricky experts from Harvard Institute for International Development US (Wall St. experts) working with (?) Dr. Vasiliev tried to encourage the development of an open stock market and a mutual fund industry (moreover, Mafia!).

Chubais who had previously backed Vasiliev's commission felt the greased palm of the banking lobby – of course, they wanted to have Vasiliev wade across Volga carrying a sizable cube of concrete. Investors – the money people who couldn't give a good God-damn about country, politics, or working class – hoped it would stimulate the development of the (their) market infrastructure and end the palm greasing necessity with both the Central Bank and Russia's Federal Securities Commission.

Another point rather interesting – British Defense Secretary George Robertson wants the German Defense Secretary Volker R uke to maintain funding for a big Eurofighter project as an important part of the continent's (NATO's) industrial base. This of course was said at a gold plate dinner in Washington D.C., when the Pentagon talked about European security and USA-Britain defense connections.

Who the hell is the enemy? Since the former Soviet Union does not exist militarily, then it appears a new type of home-made maple syrup Cold War has to lay the groundwork to sap more money from tax payers everywhere except Wall Street circles. They talk about being committed to this aircraft not only as a military project but because in the production at Daimler-Benz Aerospace won't have enough money to pay its sub-contractors and 150,000 workers might be laid off. Airbus, made in Germany, would be involved. Shifting around monies for other military items still keeps the chickens in your own hen-house along with upgraded tanks, armoured cars, weapons, munitions, etc.

But think carefully. The other Airbus affair – who gave the goosing? The Pentagon's Boeing do not want Airbus to get even a wheel-chock of business in Europe or China, or South East Asia – so you can smell the tricky business afoot.

While Robertson was in Washington, he also spoke of other goodies regarding European (their) Security, confirming Poland, Czech, and Hungary into NATO and then hinting would be no problem absorbing Slovenia – but had serious doubts about Bulgaria being absorbed (What utter nonsense, the whole thing). When, on the other hand, and the Pentagon certainly knew it – there was an approval of Bulgaria's budget proposal by the International Monetary Fund. When one assesses the money exchange rates in all countries of Europe as dictated by financial complexes, drinking Mexican economic Tequila even with salt would be like drinking water, compared to what those capitalists have in store for Europe, including Russia and for Soviet Republics' finances. Brother, can you spare a dime?

- Best to all

From ITALY:

I'm convinced one of the most important functions of Northstar Compass will be to analyse international and national news and alert the friends of ours in the Communist Parties of the former Soviet Union of the privatization disease which spreads from U.S. Imperialism across Europe and to their lands in East Europe.

It is not only the NATO method, or the European Union methods, all directed to exploit every aspect of life in the former Soviet Union, but a new carefully orchestrated transnational plague which includes financially poisoning the rights to water, and power, and other utilities which must come under control of workers' governments and not under the controls of multi-international organizations.

Manipulation of government policies, as predicted by Marx, Lenin, Stalin and other more recent writers, are laying a non-military offensive to gain international control of, for example, water and electricity and Internet's quick access to news and events.

Take for example the situation with water, including drinking water. In England recently, a major news story told of profit increases for the sale and transportation of water to consumers, and that shareholders (not we, the common user) paid to themselves bigger dividends, did not fix leaks in their systems, wasted our valuable water while they guzzled champagne at their meetings to decide how much higher they could raise water rates, and what the projection for next year's dividends would be. These same vultures of course wanted to set up shop in Canada, and are apt to do so. Certain it is they look like the plague-flees on rats to spread their disease to all republics in East Europe.

Again, another example: Thailand - big international companies like ABN-Amro and Thailand's TISCO and Dhana Siam - they manipulate stock and bond markets, cry their dry crocodile tears, and in the meantime, lay financial, industrial and political ground-work to take over policies of Thailand's Provincial Waterworks Authority and Irrigation Departments to bite into a basic necessity of life's water. We therefore should advise our friends to call for the institution of laws, where no one in, or out of any Republic, will be able to cause privatization of any basic life needs. We have to show to them the effects of such plagues.

Let's look at electricity - another basic right for our lives and theirs.

Here in Italy, I see workers going to work. I see street lights, beautifully designed lights under which many workers have just passed. I do not believe they are yet aware that the process of deregulation of European electric power to be in effect in 1999 will reach down from that very lamp-post and pull extra Lira from his or her pocket to fill the safety deposit boxes of Enron's Texas energy group, when his Italian electricity company ENEI sells out in slippery deals his or her rights to this important utility. Furthermore, to give more profit to the privateers, ENEI will team up with Deutsche Telekom to form a joint telecommunications company "to compete" for the third licence regarding mobile telephone network here in Italy - but hold your pasta, ENRON-ENI joint company, also with electric-chair power for the working class, are in cahoots with U.S. General Electric (another of the profiteers who made several mints during the World War II here in Europe) will, all of them together, watch the execution with electric power of Italy's working class. The Communist Party of Italy are aware of this - and perhaps they will be able to affect some awakening.

But hold the plug - Portugal is getting ready to take its electric-shock treatment through the privatization of a good portion (eventually, all of it) - Electricidade de Portugal. Mamma mia, are they in for a lesson in finances. Money manipulations have reached the stage where private savings are being removed from banks (which may not be so bad), but are being conned into stock-market purchases of shares of Portugal's electric company. I don't believe it will be hard to guess who will buy those shares. Why, anyone knows. Portugal fishermen will row their skiffs to the shore - run to the bank, but not an ocean bank, draw out all their millions of Escudos, run down to the stock exchange and buy all the shares of their (already paid for) electricity company. The question of pushing items into the water along with skiff anchors looms over the ocean quite well in a method to solve such problems.

It is therefore with Northstar Compass that all of us should watch the methods of the Capitalist class, pick off the flees, stomp on them, and bash the political-rat-policies in the need for us to stop this financial and industrial plague.

FEATURE ANALYSIS

THE RELIGIOUS RIGHT

By: William Bunge

William Jefferson Clinton won the Presidency because of the Pope's fanatic anti-Communism hatred of abortion. The men split their vote almost fifty-fifty while the women voted for a second term two-to-one. The Pope's anti-Communism has led to clearly Fascist actions such as the Catholic massacre of the Incas, yet again in Lima, Peru, eschewing a peaceful solution previously agreed to. The stock market soared temporarily. The effect of the Catholic massacre of the Incas in Lima had immediate effect here in my backyard. Out of respect for Dr. Martin Luther King and the alliances formed with Jewish, Catholic and especially African-Catholic people and their fearless White religious counterparts and my own people, John Brown Protestants and our Christian counterparts in Dr. King's base, a fellow Protestant; we must recognize the agony The Betrayal of

Bill Bunge - Cartographer, Historian,

Lima represents to these good Christians who follow the historic real Jesus. If we Communists were shook by The Betrayal, many of us atheists think how Catholics like Archbishop Thomas Gumbelton of Detroit feels. Think of how our youngest adopted daughters' village priest feels. There are far more communists in this world than Communists like ourselves and we must never become an arrogant elite. On the individual level, a man can do no more than give his life.

The Betrayal, in the context of other events here locally, has allowed us to re-establish strong roots with secular nationalists with whom we had a rupture years ago when they decided that they all had enemies too therefore, there was no special hatred called "racism". They have learned over our years of struggle here that there is too a special hatred reserved for us. Enclosed is a reactivated slogan from 1983, a poster drawn here in Arthabaska from the vast majority of the Québec population who have turned their backs on the Church starting massively in the early 1960's.

The churches here, as they have long ago in Montréal, are emptying out. All that is left is a burial society, an extortion racket, "Give us your money or you go to Hell", and this protection scheme only frightens the very old. The churches here are closing. The last act of the burial society is to bury itself. This process has been speeded along by Fascist Catholics at the top.

We oldtimers and I prefer the Native term "elders", know that when the Fascists are in their heady, gleeful peak they are sowing the seeds of their own destruction. There are times when we must scatter and survive the best we can, hide our views, but there are other times when we must call their bluff, get down in a ditch and die if necessary, but back up not one inch. We Communists come to state power by forming united fronts against Fascism. What is the objective effect of "capitalism" in what used to be

FACTS ABOUT BOSNIA THAT NSC READERS SHOULD KNOW!

These facts were gathered from the U.S. Senate Republican Policy Committee documents.

- Iranian arms help turn Bosnia into a militant Islamic base in Yugoslavia, aimed at the former socialist countries. President Clinton has approved the arms transfer from Iran to Bosnia.

- The Islamic units being organized in the Bosnian Army include mujahedin units, and inside them are being trained suicide bombers. Although these units include foreign fighters naturalized in Bosnia, most of the personnel are now Bosnian Muslims trained by Iranian and other foreign personnel.

- There are other units known as Handzar (“dagger” or “scimitar”) Division described by Bodansky (Some Call It Peace, page 40) as a “pretorian guard” for President Izetbegovic. “Up to 6,000 strong, the Handzar division glories in a fascist culture. They see themselves as heirs of the SS Handzar division formed by Bosnian Muslims in 1943 to fight for the Nazis. Their spiritual model was Mohammed Amin al-Husseini, the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem who sided with Hitler. According to UN officers, surprisingly few of those in charge of the Handzars ... seem to speak good Serbo-Croatian. They are trained and led by veterans from Afghanistan and Pakistan, say UN sources.” (‘Albanians and Afghans fight for their heirs to Bosnia’s SS past’, London Daily Telegraphy, 12/29/93).

Classified reports to the UN force commander, General Satish Nambiar, concluded that Bosnian forces loyal to President Alija Alzerbegovic may have detonated a bomb that killed 16 people in Sarajevo in 1992, not Serb besiegers as was widely reported all over the world. The General stated that: “The large impact which was there, is not similar or nearly as large as we came to expect with a mortar round landing on a paved surface” (“Muslims ‘slaughter’ their own people”, London, The Independent newspaper, 8/22/92).

Lies, no matter how cleverly hidden and lies, no matter how cleverly expounded in the media all over the world, eventually the truth always comes out sooner than later. The question is that our readers must sift facts from fiction and be wary of clever “pseudo truth” dressed up as “almighty factual truth”!
