

STATEN ISLAND

COUNCIL for

PEACE AND JUSTICE

P.O. Box 140509 S.I., NY 10314-0018

CONTINUING the S.I. Peace Coalition, Founded 1968

Dear Friends,

In November the STATEN ISLAND COUNCIL FOR PEACE & JUSTICE will be twenty years old. For twenty years the SICPJ (known as the Peace Council, for short) has been on the forefront in the fight against military intervention abroad, against the continued threat of the nuclear arms race, and the blight of bigotry and racism at home. Moreover, Peace Council members have served as a voice for unity in the progressive community on S.I.; active in electoral campaigns, bringing various groups together in coalitions for different actions and demonstrations (the SICPJ was, in fact, a founding member of the S.I. Disarmament Campaign Coalition) and helping to explain the connections and links between the peace, civil rights, economic justice, labor and environment movements.

In this our 20th year, the SICPJ will be honoring Edward Rothberg with our 1988 HECHTMAN-ROSEN PEACE & JUSTICE AWARD. Ed Rothberg, a long time resident of Staten Island, is well known to the progressive community with his work with Ads For Peace, the Human Rights Committee and a list of other causes too numerous to mention. His lifelong commitment will be honored at the Peace Council's Second Annual Awards Luncheon to be held SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12th at the FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 10 Brownell St. Stapleton from 1:30 pm to 5:00 pm. There will be plenty of hot buffet-style food; SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKERS and good company.

This year, we will be printing a commemorative journal in conjunction with our Annual Award Luncheon. YOUR AD IN OUR SOUVENIR PROGRAM JOURNAL WILL HELP US TO CONTINUE OUR NEEDED WORK FOR WORLD PEACE AND RACIAL AND ECONOMIC JUSTICE AT HOME. The prices for the ads are listed on the enclosed form. Please fill it out and return it to us as soon as possible (deadline is Nov. 4). If you require, we can help you design and typeset your message. TEL: (718) 979-7923

We know that you will want to join with us in celebrating our twenty years of peace & justice work and in honoring Ed Rothberg.

Thank you for your continuing support of our efforts.
