Dear Ed,

According to our records, your annual membership falls due this month. We hope that you will continue to support the Staten Island Council for Peace and Justice by renewing your membership for another year.

We are in the process of attempting to establish a firmer financial footing for Council activities. Our estimated minimum yearly costs - for mailing, xeroxing, etc. total approximately $350. If we are to expand our activities, as these times demand, our costs will rise accordingly. Planning for spring programs is now proceeding. One focus of local programming will be the Second U. N. Special Session on Disarmament in June.

The membership dues structure has recently been revised. Annual membership for members is $15; for supporting members $20; and for sustaining members $25.

We thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Rae N. Wasserman
